A sentence, which will be the occaion of much comment, was imposed by Judge A. J. House in the district court Saturday afternoon. It was pronounced in the case of the colored man. William Durley, who was arrested for nurder in connection with the death of his wife, which occurred in St. Luke's hospital a few days subsequent to a brutal assault which he had made apon her. Burley was living in a shantyboat moored in Rockingham near the Simon Yann place, and was employed as a clammer. One day he and his wife had a difference, and during it he is alleged to have assaulted her, brutally beating her and throwing her down on the floor of the shantyboat wherein they lived, fracturing her neck so that she lay in a comatose condition until she died at St. Luke's hospital, whither she was taken some time afterward. For the crime of manslaughter the minimum sentence is one year in the penitentiary. Judge House imposed the maximum one of hree years at hard labor in the penientiary at Fort Madison.

ABOUT THAT COAT

You wear a coat. Why? To keep the cold out? No: to keep the warmth in. What of the body that has no warmth-the thin, poor body that lacks the healthy flesh and fat it needs?

For such we say that Scott's Emulsion provides the right kind of a coat. Why? Because Scott's Emulsion builds firm, solid flesh and supplies just enough fat to fill nature's requirements - no more. That means bodily warmth.
